

TOTC Member Meeting Minutes

May 1, 2014

The guest speaker is Dr Maris speaking on summer safety. There were 21 members present at the meeting. The meeting was called to order at 7:15.

Secretary's Report: Motion was made and passed to accept the minutes.

Treasurer's Report: We are in sound financial condition. A motion was made and passed to accept the treasurer's report.

Vice President's Report: The summer safety series continues next meeting with the topic of first aid kits.

Training Director's Report: The next classes begin on May 6. Some of the classes need assistants. Robin handed out certificates for the assistants and Don handed out money to the teachers. This will be the last session until September. We will look into some member training classes during the break. Obedience matches are scheduled for May 25 and June 29 from 9-5.

Training Secretary's Report: We will need help with the sign-up table and fitting collars. There are 10 pre-registrations for the pet class. The pre-agility class has been a big success.

Committees: There was no agility report. Sonja reports all is going well for the obedience trial. She has posters advertising the show. Beverly needs raffle items. Ring stewards are also still needed. We may do daily raffle drawings instead of one on the last day.

Old Business: The Charlene Dunn tracking seminar is scheduled for Nov 22-23. Cost is $125.00 for member working spots and $200.00 for non-members. There are 12 working spots available. Audit spots are $50.00. The Quitman demo went very well. The East Texas Fair demo is Sept 24. We will hold auditions for tricks to demo at the Fair at the September meeting. The best 3 tricks will be included in the demos.

New Business: If you are opening the shed, please leave the key in the lock and not inside the shed. The Whine and Cheese party will be held June 21. The club will provide the wine. Members bring food. Please leave your dogs at home.

New Members: 1st readings Beth Ann Geesing, Kayla King, Chelsea Moore. 2nd readings and voted into membership Fawnda Piner and Becky Barnes.

The meeting adjourned at 8:00 pm followed by brags and snacks.

Respectfully submitted, Tina Allbritton
